Description

One-of-a-Kind Natural Fancy Pink Heart Diamond Earrings GIA Certified | White Gold

Two hearts. Two rare pink diamonds. One singular pair that will never exist again.

The Center Stones Two individually GIA-certified natural fancy pink heart-shaped diamonds — each a rare expression of nature's most coveted color:

0.27ct Fancy Light Pinkish Brown | SI1

0.24ct Fancy Light Pink Brown | VS2

Deliberately mismatched in grade yet harmonious in color — a hallmark of truly natural, truly rare stones. No two natural fancy color diamonds are identical, and this pair celebrates exactly that truth.

The Setting: Each heart is cradled in rose-gold prongs, honoring and deepening its natural blush. A first halo of pink round brilliant diamonds encircles each center stone intimately — pink layered upon pink. A sweeping outer halo of white round brilliant diamonds in white gold frames the composition, their colorless fire throwing the pink centers into breathtaking relief.

The double-halo heart silhouette is bold yet feminine — a design that reads instantly from across the room and reveals its rarity up close.

Why This Pair Exists. Once, matching natural fancy pink heart diamonds for a pair of earrings is one of the most difficult sourcing feats in the gem world. This pair, individually GIA certified, will not be replicated.
