Description

One-of-a-Kind Natural Fancy Pink Diamond Four-Heart Cross Pendant GIA Certified | White Gold

Symbolic. Rare. Worn close to the heart — literally.

The Center Stone A 0.19 carat natural Fancy Light Brown Pink diamond, GIA certified, princess-cut, and set in a rose gold frame at the very heart of the composition. Its warm blush — earthy, soft, and entirely natural — glows against the surrounding white diamond architecture like an ember at the center of a cathedral window.

The Design Four open heart silhouettes radiate from the center in a cross formation — each one outlined in pavé-set white round brilliant diamonds, their brilliance tracing every curve with precision. The cross arms connect the hearts in a unified composition that is at once architectural and deeply intimate. The diamond-set bail continues the pavé seamlessly from pendant to chain — no interruption, no compromise — suspending the piece on a white gold link chain that keeps the focus where it belongs: on the pendant itself.

The Symbolism Four hearts. One center. A design that speaks to love, devotion, and the singular rarity of a natural pink diamond — chosen not because it was available, but because nothing else would do.

GIA certificate available. Private viewing by appointment.
